Dear AMLI members,

As the year draws to a close, I wanted to thank each and every one of you for your dedication and contributions to AMLI. We've had a great year due to the many efforts of our members who have contributed to our mission to educate and expand our reach in the field of medical laboratory immunology, have developed collaborations with other organizations such as AACC, FOCIS, CIS and others and represented AMLI at these and other meetings, have contributed their time to a number of committees working on quality, validation guidelines, consensus documents (to name a few). Thank you also to our corporate members who have provided such tremendous support not only to AMLI but also to the field of medical laboratory immunology in general. And not least of all, thank you to Maggie Fogel without whose help we couldn't keep all of our efforts going! We are fortunate to have such an enthusiastic and collaborative group of people at AMLI!

I wish you all a happy and peaceful holiday season! Safe travels if you are travelling this season and a happy 'staycation' if you're staying put and spending time with your loved ones. Thank you again and I look forward to a fruitful 2019 for all of us at AMLI.

Best wishes
