Every event is customized to the specific vision and needs of our clients.

Encore Event Technologies, a Freeman company, is the preferred, in-house event technology provider at the Renaissance Cleveland and stands ready to assist you in designing your entire event platform. We know every inch of the space and work in concert with the hotel staff to ensure that your event is a complete success.

From pre-planning through final production, Encore is positioned with unique resources on property and industry-trained staff to produce exciting, memorable meetings and events. Additionally, we are the exclusive provider of rigging, power, and internet which gives us a competitive advantage at this facility.

All Event Technology items and services are subject to a taxable 24% service charge and prevailing sales tax of 8% that is not included in the above pricing. Labor is subject to sales tax.
