

Challenges Related to Poliovirus Eradication and Advances in Poliovirus Vaccines and Diagnostics

Date: Friday, March 17th, 2023

Time: 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM EST

SPEAKERS

Kimberly Thompson, Sc.D.

President, Kid Risk, Inc. Orlando, FL.
A world leader in risk analysis and decision science, health policy, global health, and system dynamics.

Kamran Badizadegan, M.D.

Vice-President, Kid Risk, Inc. Orlando, FL. Pathologist and Clinical Informatician with expertise in analytical tools and methods in healthcare.

MODERATOR

Aaruni Khanolkar, MBBS, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Feinberg School of Medicine
Chicago, Illinois

Learning Objectives

- Describe the current status of global polio eradication and the risks that remain in the polio endgame
- Discuss the complexity of different types of polioviruses, vaccines, and the diagnostics
- Recognize the risks associated with the long-term excretion of polioviruses by some individuals with primary immunodeficiencies